

ADAM GRAY, FSA, EA, CERA, MAAA

Consulting Actuary

Areas of Expertise

Defined Benefit
Actuarial Consulting
Risk Management
Plan Compliance
Plan Administration
Forecasting
De-Risking Strategy and Implementation
Actuarial Systems

Adam joined the firm in 2009. He is a consulting actuary with experience in the design, funding, accounting disclosure, and administration and regulatory compliance of defined benefit pension plans. Adam possesses in-depth experience in a wide variety of pension plan designs, which include both qualified and nonqualified plans. He is a Fellow of the Society of Actuaries, an Enrolled Actuary, and a Chartered Enterprise Risk Analyst.

Education

University of Alabama, Tuscaloosa, AL — M.S., Applied Statistics
University of Alabama, Tuscaloosa, AL — B.S., Quantitative Finance

Publications and Presentations

- A Longer Life Expectancy Does Have Its Downside, Developments, 2015
- Rate Hikes and Pension Plans: How the Federal Reserve Affects Pension, Developments, 2016

Professional and Community Involvement

- American Academy of Actuaries

Contact Me

adam.g.gray@bpsm.com

5301 Virginia Way
Suite 400
Brentwood, TN 37027
Phone: 615.665.5313

