Betsy is the Managing Principal for BPS&M. She joined the firm in 1992 and has been a Principal since 1999. Her primary responsibility includes managing BPS&M's operations.

Previously Betsy served as Director of Actuarial Services for the firm for 10 years, directing firm capabilities and resources in the defined benefit, health and welfare, and consulting practice areas. In this role she managed the actuarial consulting staff, played a prominent role in the development of new business opportunities, and oversaw BPS&M's actuarial exam and training programs.

Throughout her tenure at BPS&M, Betsy has practiced as an actuary and has served as managing consultant for several of the firm's largest clients, providing services to organizations in the banking, healthcare, manufacturing, agriculture, and professional services industries. She has expertise in the design, funding, administration, and fiduciary and regulatory compliance of defined benefit, defined contribution, and nonqualified deferred compensation plans.
