Alan is the senior consultant for a number of our key clients. He began his career in actuarial and employee benefits consulting in 1990. He has a unique combination of pension consulting and software development expertise that allows him to provide diverse software solutions to assist clients with managing data and calculating benefits. In addition, Alan is regularly involved in many traditional pension projects including asset/liability studies, experience studies, benefit studies, and liability projections to name a few. Alan has written for the Pension Forum, spoken at the Enrolled Actuaries Meeting, and participated on the Part 8 Exam Committees. He is a member of the firm's Government Practice Group. He is a Fellow of the Society of Actuaries, a Fellow of the Conference of Consulting Actuaries, and an Enrolled Actuary.
