

STERLING PRICE, FSA, EA, MAAA

Principal

Areas of Expertise

Actuarial Consulting
Defined Benefit
Plan Design
Plan Administration
Plan Compliance
Forecasting
Risk Management
De-Risking Strategy and Implementation

Sterling has 19 years of actuarial and consulting experience related to the design, funding, administration, and regulatory compliance of retirement plans. He has experience with both qualified and nonqualified retirement plans. Sterling has worked with a wide range of clients including governmental entities, church groups, and private employers. He has performed several asset liability studies to help clients determine an appropriate asset investment mix for their pension plans. He also had extensive involvement in the implementation of the firm's actuarial valuation software.

Education

Georgia State University, Atlanta, GA — M.S., Actuarial Science
University of Virginia, Charlottesville, VA — B.A., History

Publications and Presentations

- Designing a Retirement Program for Professional Firms —the Fundamentals, Developments, 2015
- IASB Announces Changes: New DB Plan Accounting Standards, Developments, 2012
- Is it Time for a Change of Plan? Consider the Cash Balance Plan Alternative, Developments, 2011
- Just How Accurate are Retirement Planning Calculators?, Developments, 2010

Professional and Community Involvement

- American Academy of Actuaries

Contact Me

sterling.price@bpsm.com

5301 Virginia Way
Suite 400
Brentwood, TN 37027
Phone: 615.665.5450

