

COREY SMITH

Consultant

Areas of Expertise

Personalized Communications Solutions

Project Management

Communication Strategy Development and Delivery

Vendor Evaluation

Market Benchmarking Including Peer Group Analysis

Corey joined the Findley Davies consulting team in 2015, supporting all practice areas of the firm. Prior to this, Corey worked in large-market benefits administration for an international human resources consulting and outsourcing firm. He has experience in health and welfare plan administration and working with both internal and external stakeholders to ensure quality benefits delivery.

Corey delivers personalized communications that assist clients in a variety of industries to attract, engage, and retain employees. He works with other Findley Davies consultants to develop a strategy to produce communications, such as total compensation reports, that reflect the value of each employee's compensation and benefits.

As a member of the Findley Davies Consulting team, Corey also works with the Health and Group Benefits and Compensation and Rewards practices. He has assisted clients in developing competitive compensation through market benchmarking, analyzing employee participation and success in strategic employer wellness programs, and ensuring competitive employee benefits through vendor evaluation.
